“Financial Assistance, Meals, Lodging and Travel”

You may qualify for financial assistance if you meet the requirements and are eligible for benefits in your locality to include scholarships, agencies and special programs. The names are provided to assist students seeking financial aid for full or partial tuition costs for training offered by Continental Auctioneers School. Each agency has its own criteria for financial aid eligibility. It is the student’s responsibility to contact these agencies to request information: Your County Career Development & Training Center, Your State Dept of Jobs & Training, WorkForce Center Adult Training Programs, WorkForce Center Cep, Eightcap, Your County Dept of Economic Security, Financial Aid for displaced farmers, Job Service Reemployment, Your County Dept. of Vocational Rehabilitation, Employment Immigration Canada, Your State or Provincial Dept. of Education, Veterans Administration, Employer Loans, Social Security Benefits, Bureau of Indian Affairs, Jewish Vocational Aid, United Methodist Loans, NAACP, or Student Loans from your Bank or Credit Union.

First Class – Affordable Accommodations

Most students prefer to select the room or roommate and food to suit their own taste. Students may live with friends, relatives or stay at any motel they choose.

Our one week course is designed to give you the best auctioneer training in the shortest period of time for the least number of dollars. We will not create additional expense for you by keeping you more days than necessary to complete your training.
